WHAT IS DIVINE HEALING
MASTER KEY?

A CHANNELLED METHOD OF HEALING

The Spiritual Law
"ask, and you shall receive".

The current reality Matrix in which we find ourselves contains strong dissonant vibrations that are expressed through intense life experiences and can deliver a lot of emotional blows, shock and trauma to our energy bodies.

Divine Healing supports you with a smooth, accessible, highly effective, intuitively channelled method to embrace your Life, heal, and reach your full potential.

It enables the quick, effective identification, validation and clearing of core patterns, freeing your life force energy and restoring vibrational health, connection to self and well-being. To regain our spiritual body, we must address our emotional body, our energy body, our physical body, and our mental body to become whole.

"As within so without; As Above So Below".
It is all connected.

Healing Yourself into Alignment.

Divine Healing is a process designed to rapidly transform any issues that keep you from moving forward into alignment with who you are and your Life's purpose.

This system enables the quick & effective identification and clearing of core wounds and patterns. It frees up your Life-force energy to promote better health, connection to the flow of Life, and enhanced well-being on every experience level.

As a Divine Healing Master Key Practitioner

I use a Language Combination of ... divination tools, channelling and intuitive guidance to bring the most unconscious issues into the light so they may be rapidly cleared. Working with Invocations, Energetic Transmissions, Detailed Charts, and command Codes - allows quick and accurate access to the appropriate information from your Higher Self to clear, realign & balance energy within your Physical Body and subtle Bodies, enhancing profound energetic shifts. Raising Consciousness and Awareness leads to transformations on all levels of Being.

Divine Healing is the Trifecta - Aligning the Body, Mind and Soul. Let's peel away the layers of unhelpful patterns that hold you back from awakening to your true nature. Old habits, beliefs no longer serving you, and subconscious ego programming.

An example is - Old traumas, family conditioning, and ancestral patterning.
Mental, emotional, and physical imbalances.
and Interference energies, including negative entities.

These gently guided sessions get to the core of your most pressing issues.

- By applying this cutting-edge technology based on the universal premise 'ask, and you shall receive', we harness your willingness to bring consciousness to hidden patterns and desire to become whole and at ease.

Divine Healing Master Key For Ascension

Each session unfolds around your intentions and needs. This multidimensional healing system means all parts of you that hold a particular energy can be cleared.

All Sessions are between 1.5 and 2.5 hours (depending on your body's ability to handle the process, everyone is unique in how the process works). These sessions are offered via Zoom online or in person.

THE SOUL'S JOURNEY IS TO

heal and become empowered.

A TRANSFORMATIVE ENERGY HEALING FOR HOLISTIC WELL-BEING

- ◇ These Sessions are 1.5 to 2.5 hours long (depending upon the individual's energy body to process during the session).
- ◇ All sessions are $555 Australian dollars per session.
- ◇ Minimum of 2 sessions is required -- However, I recommended four sessions over eight weeks to experience the full impact.

These are very revealing and energetically powerful sessions.

Welcome to Divine Healing Sessions, where we unlock the power of energy healing to support your physical, mental, and spiritual well-being. Our approach focuses on the profound energy within the quantum field surrounding and connecting every aspect of your being.

By addressing and releasing imprints and distortions within this energy field, such as sabotaging patterns, traumas, fears, and phobias carried from past lives or inherited from ancestral patterns, we can facilitate deep healing for your body, mind, and Soul.

It's important to note that energy healing does not directly cure physical issues or replace traditional medical recommendations. Instead, Divine Healing Sessions complement other modalities like acupuncture, massage, or dietary changes by bringing awareness to underlying patterns and blocks contributing to disease and dysfunction.

Divine Healing doesn't diagnose or treat medical or psychological conditions. It offers profound support to increase vibratory energy, emotional healing, and personal spiritual guidance.

Research in interpersonal neurobiology, attachment theory, intergenerational trauma, and epigenetics highlights the significance of resolving unconscious patterns for proper healing. Divine Healing provides a path to bring these patterns into conscious awareness, allowing you to release what no longer serves you and experience profound peace in the present moment.
